Why Choose Reynolds Professional Beauty Therapist Courses?

If you are considering a career as a professional beauty therapist, you will already be passionate about the health and beauty industry. At Reynolds we are committed to nurturing your passion and talent by providing you with a variety of recognised qualifications that will enable you to succeed as a fully qualified beauty therapist. Whether you are at the start of your beauty therapist journey or progressing onto the next level we have a wide variety of qualifications and CPD options for you to choose from. All our courses are industry recognised qualifications and validated by VTCT.

What Do I Need To Succeed As A Professional Beauty Therapist?

Before deciding which level of qualification is the right route for you, your key to being a success is:

- Being passionate and committed to learning;
- Demonstrate excellent time keeping;
- Dedication to the health and beauty industry;
- A desire to achieve high standards;
- Enjoy working in a salon environment and treating clients.

Having a career in the beauty industry is one that will constantly involve learning new skills, techniques and new products. It is a rewarding client based employment that offers opportunities for you to work in a variety of different environments; Beauty Salons, Spas, Hotels, Health Clubs, Holiday Resorts and Cruise Ships are just a few examples. You can also develop your own business and entrepreneurial skills by working as a self-employed beauty therapist - the options for gainful employment are endless and what is more, you build great relationships with clients and make them feel good about themselves! Keeping up with the latest trends and responding to the needs of your clients is essential. Through both your work and attitude you will be able to show your love for being part of the beauty industry.

Student & Employer testimonials

“ My Beauty courses at Reynolds have been amazing and I was lucky enough to get a job at the Reynolds Retreat where I'm learning and getting the experience I need to further my career. I wouldn't have had this opportunity if it wasn't for the teachers, they have been very supportive and I have learnt so much, I would highly recommend Reynolds Training Academy for future learners and for myself if a course comes up that I'm interested in’.

“ I thoroughly enjoyed my time at Reynolds, where I attained my NVQ beauty qualifications. My level 2 course was great and I enjoyed the diverse ways of teaching and learning. It was very interactive. I had the benefit of 2 different teachers as well and found that very beneficial. I enjoyed the course so much I took the government loan to do my NVQ 3 at Reynolds. It was very in depth and I learnt so much. The course really made me into the therapist I am today. Working hard and showing interest (especially if beauty is what you want to do) goes a long way and you definitely get out what you put in.

“

The journey between college, employer and student is now more important than ever. We feel the relationship we have built with Reynolds Training Academy through past and current apprenticeships and work experience placements is not only rewarding for the learners development but for the industry as a whole. A careful selection process allows for the most suitable candidate to grow within the business whilst at college with the direct support of tutors, colleagues and industry professionals. We have noticed a distinct rise in confidence and ability in the students here at Rowhill Grange through their weekly achievements with us. It is with great enthusiasm we welcome the prospect of future possibilities with Reynolds Academy.’

“

Thank you for considering Reynolds Training Academy for your next steps in training. At Reynolds, we nurture the individuality and creative talent of each of our students, encouraging them to develop their skills, accelerate individual progress and promote their lifelong learning. Our successful programmes of study enable students to follow a wide curriculum of training opportunities that underpin the skills and knowledge required for a career in the beauty industry. Class sizes are small so that individual care and attention is maintained within a group environment, enabling students to progress and realise their full potential more rapidly and receive regular general and individualised feedback in every class. There are 3 levels of study; level 2, 3 and 4 providing opportunities for students to progress through a 3 year training programme should they wish to.

Pastoral care and individual attention is at the heart of our work and our priority is to support students' individual needs. We have a number of specialist staff that will guide and mentor students throughout their programme of study including individualised academic support, personal tutors and a lifestyle coach and counsellor. Students engage in a 1:1 review with their personal tutor each term as well as regular catch-ups and group tutorials. At RTA we have an 'open door' communications policy, which lends itself to a very special working environment among both students and staff that produces positive, versatile, and communicative people. We are proud to see our graduates achieving success not just in the beauty industry, but other areas of employment and education, as well as supplementary careers by utilising transferable skills gained from their RTA training. The college boasts a highly distinguished teaching faculty dedicated to imparting their own knowledge and expertise.
